Sustainability

Editorial Policy

This Website was prepared to ensure that a wide range of stakeholders are able to obtain and understand the Teijin Group's sustainability information.

Reporting Period

Unless otherwise specified, this report covers the period from April 2024 to March 2025. However, some activities in or after April 2025 are also included.

Reporting Organizations

This report covers the entire Teijin Group (Teijin Limited and 48 domestic Group companies and 105 overseas Group companies). Regarding non-financial information, Teijin Automotive Technologies NA Holdings Corp. (TAT-NA), a consolidated subsidiary in the Materials segment, has been excluded from the scope of reporting starting from FY2024 because it is a discontinued operation.

Boundaries for Reporting of ESH Data >

Materiality and Comprehensiveness

This Website provides reporting on comprehensive and detailed information. The material issues for the Teijin Group and society as a whole are explained in the Teijin Group Integrated Report 2025.

Integrated Report >

Guidelines Referred to When Disclosing Non-financial Information:

- Environmental Reporting Guidelines 2018 (Japan's Ministry of the Environment)
- The Sustainability Reporting Standards（Global Sustainability Standards Board（GSSB））
- The latest report by the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures
- The standards for the Chemical Industry within the SASB standards disclosed by the IFRS Foundation (formerly disclosed by the U.S.-based Sustainability Accounting Standards Board [SASB])

Assurance of Reliability

Environmental and social performance indicators included in this website have been independently reviewed by KPMG AZSA Sustainability Co., Ltd., who has provided assurance of its reliability. Indicators on which assurance is provided are marked with★.

Independent Assurance Report >